

Wichtige Infos

über die ab 01.04.2019 gültigen
Verladebestimmungen von Grimaldi

We inform the client once they contact us or they come to the office.

For the moment, we received the instruction that the surveyor will perform the inspection previous loading the ship, so that is why the client needs to leave all keys to have full access to all compartments.

Shipping information

Motorhomes and Caravans

Cargo must be fully drivable/towable and if necessary include an 'Operation Manual' which shows how to start, drive/stop the unit. Brakes and steering have to be in an impeccable condition, no liquids leakages are accepted. All Cargo will be inspected and checked by an independent surveyor prior loading. If the surveyor will finds not allowed goods (which are listed below) the cargo will not be accepted to be shipped. The survey costs EUR XX,- and the costs will be invoiced together with the oceanfreight.
